HITTING THE ROAD FOR VACATION? READ THIS FIRST

With gas hanging out at a manageable price, choosing a vacation destination within driving distance is becoming popular once more. Void of the stress of over packing or a delayed flight, traveling by car seems like a no brainer. By following these few steps listed below, however, your summer road trip will be off to the best start possible!

1. DITCH YOUR BORING, EVERY-DAY VEHICLE

As much as you love your car, sometimes Old Faithful can get a bit boring. If you're heading to a destination with gorgeous weather, consider renting a convertible or a similarly fun car for the journey! If you're a bit budget-friendly, too, try ditching the bigger brand name rental companies and opt for a small, local company. Prices are often cheaper!

2. DOWNLOAD A PODCAST SURE TO ENTERTAIN ALL PASSENGERS

Have you heard of The Unexplainable Disappearance of Mars Patel? If not, get ready to start downloading. A podcast perfect for children, it's also sure to entertain adults who grew up on The Goonies and were recently enthralled by Stranger Things.

3. UPGRADE FROM THE 'LICENSE PLATE' GAME

As much as we love naming all of the different state license plates we see on the freeways, it's so last year. On this trip, try the Movie Game. Perfect for adults and families, the first passenger starts by naming a movie. The second passenger must name an actor in that movie. The third passenger must name a movie that actor is in. Get it? It can go on forever, helping the hours of a long journey tick by!

4. STAY CALM: ANGRY DRIVERS BURN MORE FUEL

You may think we're kidding, but we promise you, this is true. Mythbusters did an entire episode on it and found that emotionally tense drivers who tend to stop and start more abruptly burn more gas than calm drivers.

5. DECK YOURSELF OUT IN NEW GEAR

Does anything get you more in the mood for vacation than new gear? Purchase a new pair of sunglasses, load up the car with your favorite snacks and non-alcoholic beverages, and download a new playlist. Once you hit the road, you'll be in the best mood possible to start driving.

No matter where you're headed or who you're traveling with, stay safe on the road and remember that the journey is part of the fun!

O'Reilly Collision Center continues to exceed my expectations. After performing a minor repair that brought my Explorer back to tip top condition they went ahead and performed a complimentary car wash. Their staff is professional, courteous and true craftsmen!

This company went way beyond the expected. I was unsure at first due to a hiccup in the primary repair but, when JR entered the scene he made sure that the customer came first. He kept me in the loop and made this experience well worth it. I will recommend this company based on the attitude and integrity of JR. Thank you so much O'riely.
